

COUNTRY Yugoslavia

SUBJECT Movement of Ships in Split Harbor in January 1950

25X1A

During January 1950, the movement of units of the Yugoslav Navy in the port of Split was as follows:

- a. ML-303 was in Split from the beginning of January until 4 January when it sailed, returning on 11 January from Sibenik. It sailed again on 12 January, returning on 14 January, and again on 19 January, returning on 27 January, after which it remained in the port until the middle of February.
- b. ML-304 entered the port of Split on 6 January, sailed on 12 January and returned on 16 January. It last left Split on 18 January and has not returned since.
- c. LL-305 was docked at Split between December 1949 and 2 January 1950 at which time it sailed, returning on 3 January. It sailed again on 4 January, returning on 5 January. On 6 January it sailed again returning on 27 January from Sibenik.
- d. ML-307 departed from Split on 1 January, returned on 5 January, and again departed on 10 January and returned on 11 January. Its last trip was on 23 January from which it returned on 25 January and remained in Split until the end of the month.
- e. LOSINJ arrived in Split on 8 January and sailed on 10 January, returning on 25 January. On 26 January it sailed for Divulje where it remained.
- f. CRES arrived in Split on 14 January and remained until 21 January. It last sailed on 17 January, and was located in the Vicko Krstulevic Shipyard.
- g. SPASILAC was docked in Split between 3 and 8 January.
- h. BICKOVO has been in Split for a long time. On 17, 23, 25, and 27 January it made an unspecified number of trips each of which lasted several hours.
- i. ORJEN arrived in the port of Split on 26 January and remained there.

CONFIDENTIAL

CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL
STATE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NAVY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NSRB		DISTRIBUTION
ARMY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	AIR		FBI					